VOL. I MARCH 1986 NO. 5

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY!

We hope you find this month's newsletter as interesting and informative as we did while putting it together. In the past few weeks, several members have sent in ideas, offers, quotes and even a crossword puzzle. We thank each and everyone for the interest they have shown and for sharing their ideas, suggestions, offers, etc. If other members wish to contribute ideas or whatever, please send them to the address above. We promise to do our very best to include any material sent to us.

Thanks once again to all ACE members for making the ART COVER EXCHANGE an "Ace of Clubs"!!

The following offers were sent in by ACE# 27, Thomas Edward DuRussel-Weston. At this time we would like to apologize to Thomas for neglecting to put his birthday in the last newsletter. It is March 24, so, Happy Birthday, ACE# 27, hope it's a good one and thank you for submitting the offers below.

UNOFFICIAL FIRST DAY COVER OFFER

I, Thomas DuRussel-Weston, am preparing unofficial FDC's for the 1986 lacemaking stamps, scheduled for May, 1986. The stamps will be officially released in Ypsilanti, MI. Issued in a setenant form, there will be four designs (four different stamps). If you want an unofficial FDC, send me a self-addressed envelope with cacheted design, plus 22¢ for each stamp (88¢ for block of four), plus another cacheted envelope (that I keep, for my effort, I pay for my stamps) I will get you an unofficial first day cancel at either Taylor or Ann Arbor, MI. Limit two cacheted envelopes, please. Cachet on delivery packet appreciated.

PEACE COVER SOCIETY ORGANIZES

An organization dedicated to peace philately is established. Thomas Weston has assumed the role of secretary. Send a SASE to Mr. Weston, 2309 Medford, Ann Arbor, MI 48104, and specify whether you want your address released to other members for correspondence and/or trades/exchanges. He will apply a linoleum block print cachet to each SASE, and a membership # will be assigned to each participant.

Below is a crossword puzzle made exclusively for the ART COVER EXCHANGE members, by our own ACE # 20, Charlie Delgado. We hope you enjoy it and many thanks to Charlie for sending it in.

The answers to the crossword are located somewhere in this newsletter.
